COMPETENCY ASSESSMENT - In and Out of the Operating Room ABSTRACT. Operating room nurse managers supervise and direct a complex, highly technical, and expensive organization. To be successful, they must possess certain competencies or skills that have not been studied extensively. A replication of one study was conducted to determine which competencies characterize OR nurse managers who are considered competent and superior.

require that perioperative nurses have basic knowledge, skills, and competency in two areas of recommended practice to reduce and prevent adverse medical events and medication errors: 1) manage the patient receiving moderate sedation/analgesia, and 2) assign a trained RN working within a state board of nursing regulations to monitor patients and administer medications during the procedural sedation.
