This word was the last which the wise old man harbored in heart ere hot death-waves of balefire he chose. A single window in the wing gleamed like a balefire in the rays of the setting sun. Balefire devoured, greediest spirit, those spared not by war out of either folk; their flower was gone. WORDS RELATED TO BALEFIRE

The name, The Balefire Brasserie, was inspired by the lighthouse located on Anastasia Island. Before there was electricity, lighthouses used fires to direct fisherman to shore. The Balefire Brasserie will implement much of the same time and care the lighthouse keepers used from yesteryear when preparing its fresh locally-sourced fare.

Of course Balefire was a 5-star read. I've been in a bit of a m/m reading slump lately. Call me Awful Luck Anne, but I keep picking up books that I am unable to finish, books that lack the diversity that I want or deserve an "F" for blatant fetishizing or, most innocuously but also most commonly, feature tropes that simply don't work for me.
