I did some abeka in 1st and 2nd, used a different phonics program. In 3rd grade we went all abeka and it was fine. My kids were mostly reading at this point (one easily, one with a little more difficulty). I really like abeka, I also like BJU. Next year my ds will be doing BJU history and Abeka language, math and Bible.

Although we've used a different (Christian) homeschool curriculum for our kids for many years, we were very pleasantly surprised when we tried the BJU history curriculum. The kids went from complaining about how boring it was to study all the "dates & places" in the history books, to saying that (in this book) the history was interesting.

BJU Press Homeschool Curriculum (Bob Jones Homeschool Curriculum) provides homeschool families with easy-to-implement, rigorous, Christian textbooks for grades Prek-12.

World History, 4th edition, recounts the story of mankind from creation to the present. Students examine ancient civilizations through the Greeks to the Roman Empire. Then they survey India, Asia, and Africa on their way to the Middle Ages, the Renaissance, and the Reformation, upon which modern history is founded. They are challenged to discover the forces, issues, people, and movements that have shaped our modern world. God's providence and Bible integration are given prominence as the students are taught to view the world through a Christian lens. - Publisher.
