Review: Let There Be Wonder - Matt Redman | Cross Rhythms

He took a leading part in New Wine, Spring Harvest, Greenbelt and similar events in the USA, where he spent a 6-month sabbatical in 2002, and elsewhere. He sees the congregational songwriter as poet, prophet, proclaimer and pastor, and in addition to his recorded albums, among his books are Face Down (2004) and The Unquenchable Worshipper. He is credited with 'narrowing the gap between worship and pop music'.
