The Cavalry Charges: Writings on Books, Film, and Music, Revised Edition is a collection of anecdotal reflections that relate many of the experiences that shaped Barry Gifford as a writer. Representative of Gifford ' s body of work, this volume is divided into three sections: books, film and television, and music. Within these sections, Gifford ' s best work is showcased, including a nine-part dossier on Marlon Brando ' s One-Eyed Jacks, in which Gifford examines the public and private lives of those involved in the film, producing an innovative framework for the movie. New to the collection are four previously published essays: a brief look at the novels of Á lvaro Mutis; a reflection on Gifford ' s schooling under Nebraska poet John Neihardt; an essay on Elliot Chaze and his novel, Black Wings Has My Angel; and a short piece on Sailor and Lula.

The author discusses how the Red Scare of the 1950s affected her communist parents and relates her efforts as an adult to find out whether or not they were truly spies for the Soviet Union. Reprint.
