Psalm 66:19 "But truly God has listened; he has attended to the voice of my prayer." The psalmist was like John. He knew that God listened to his prayer, and even "attended to the voice of [his] prayer." It's one thing to have your prayers heard, but to have them "attended to" means it's been taken care of. That doesn't mean your prayer request will come exactly as you thought it would be, but since God attends to it, that should be enough for us.

5 Bible Verses To Reassure You That God Is Listening To ...

God instructs him to attack the Philistines and save Keilah. Like David, we face countless needs and opportunities in life. With each one, we are invited to inquire of God and listen for his response. Hearing God's voice requires a listening heart. Mastering the art of listening is one of my greatest challenges.

But God is always listening to us, even if we don't hear Him. More often than not when we can't come to terms with why He hasn't given us what we want or made it clear why we can't have it it's not because He's not paying attention to our needs, He does constantly, but because we're not paying attention to them.

Listening to God is like listening to anyone-before you can hear Him, you must be ready to listen. Just as in a conversation, you cannot hear the other person if you are talking or if your mind is distracted. So it is with God. If you want to hear Him speak, you must be quiet and you must be focused on what He is saying.

Listening To God

Instead, when we listen, we hear God beckoning us to live Jesus' final prayer — for all of us to be one (John 17:20-23). Let's not run away. Let's all allow ourselves to be chosen, chased down, and overtaken by this liberating work. Blessed are those who hear the word of God and obey it. Luke 11:28 (CSB) Leave a Comment

When We Listen, We Hear God - (in)courage

But instead of listening to dire predictions or doubts, we speak to God and listen to the voice of our indwelling spirit: "God, You are the voice of wisdom and courage. As I surrender to You, Your spirit within soothes my heart and clears away any confusion in my thoughts. "I know that You will never forsake me, that You will always love me.

God, I'm Listening - Saturday, August 24, 1996 | Daily Word

How do you know if God is listening? Even when it feels like God is distant, he always hears and answers our prayers. In the movie Bruce Almighty, God decides to take a holiday and give his powers to an unsuspecting man named Bruce. One of the first things Bruce must deal with is the constant stream of prayers pouring into his mind.

How do you know if God is listening? | Bible Daily ...

We need to be quiet to listen. To hear and recognize God's voice requires us to put down what we are doing, cast our anxieties and troubles at God's feet, and give our whole attention to him. When we are recollected in silence before God, we begin to hear his voice. 2. Through Scripture "The word of God is living and effective" (Heb. 4:12).

Five Ways to Listen to God | Dominicana

In 1 Kings 19, God communicated with Elijah: first came the strong violent wind, then an earthquake and then a fire ... but, Scripture says, God was not in any of these. God chose to speak with a still small voice, or gentle whisper. So, in order to hear God's voice, we must quiet our hearts to listen. What does this mean?
