Hanging Hill is the story of two sisters, opposites in everything and estranged until dark events bring them back together once again. This is a classic Hayder novel, where I read this lightheaded from holding my breath in anticipation for the next fright I am sure to receive. And this never lets up throughout the whole novel!

Hanging Hill by Mo Hayder - Goodreads

Mo Hayder is one of my favourite authors and I've enjoyed all the books of hers that I've read so far. Hanging Hill was, for me, the best by a long shot...the story was fast-moving with a good plotline. Basically the story revolves around 2 sisters who have kind of grown apart until the horrible murder of a teenage girl brings them together again. There are all sorts of different characters in the book-some good, some not-so-good, and this keeps things interesting and makes you wonder what's ...

Hanging Hill is no different. Both Zoe and Sally are strong but flawed in different ways and it is interesting to see how they change over the course of the novel. Equally fascinating, if not more so to me, is how differently they view themselves, each other and their shared past and I am full of
