Was Jesus The Gentle Parent? First of all, He was never a parent and didn't raise children. His purpose was to point people to their need for a Savior. He wanted people to clearly see their sin and that the wrath of God was upon them because of it. If their eye caused them to sin, He told them to pluck it out.

I have been reading the book "Jesus, the Gentle Parent: Gentle Christian Parenting" by L. R. Knost and i recommend it whole heartedly to all my friends. This book trully speaks to the heart. Although its a parenting book it is also suitable for anyone since it shows God's love to us as His children.

I agree with the previous reviews on amazon.com. Jesus, the Gentle Parent is a bit idealistic, but worth the read. This book has the potential to help clear the air, heal and bridge the gap between generations. I especially love that she references the spirited child (Raising Your Spirited Child by Mary Sheedy Kurcinka).
