A. John: The fourth Gospel. 1. The Gospel of John is the fourth section of what some call the four-fold gospel, with four voices giving different perspectives on the life of Jesus of Nazareth. Christian writers as early as Origen (a.d. 185-254) understood that there are not really four gospels, but there is one four-fold gospel.

Author – Unlike most of the epistles, the author of “1 John” is never mentioned. However, the early Christian church universally accepted John as the author. In the gospel of John, John never identifies himself by name either (a form of modesty) so it is not surprising that he does not identify himself by name here.
