The World in My Pocket (1961) - IMDb

The World in My Pocket is an armored car robbery caper that immediately reminds you of Lionel White's the Big Caper or of many of the capers depicted in Westlake's Parker series. This is all about getting a crew together, nailing down the plan, and pulling it off, as well as what doesn't go according to plan.

Synopsis by Eleanor Mannikka. While this effective film may ostensibly be a thriller about the robbery of an armored vehicle, considerable black comedy ensnares the action in many places. Ginny (Nadja Tiller) is an enigmatic German woman cons a gang of crooks into robbing an armored car bound for France containing a US Army payroll.
